

Maintenance needs are unknown at this time and will be identified as part of the 90% design process in Objective 4. Maintenance needs will be considered in the design alternative process, with an intent of providing solutions with low maintenance requirements.

Monitoring of any habitat features will be necessary for future tracking of success. However, since this project intends to conclude at a 90% design deliverable, a definitive monitoring and maintenance plan will not be developed.