About the Program: This program allows participants the chance to explore one of the most biodiverse locations in the US. Guests will learn about mussel species that call the Clinch home and their importance in the ecosystem while enjoying the calm waters. Guests should be prepared to get wet and maybe muddy.

Payment is due when the reservation is made.

Tour will start strictly on the time slot. It is important that guests arrive early and that no guests are registered at a minimum of 1 hour before the trip due to time constraints and program scheduling.
